DO IT TODAY

MRS. MARY GALBRAITH.

As foretold in yesterday's LEDGER, the end was but a few hours off in the death of Mrs. Mary Galbraith, as she peacefully passed away Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Yancey near Bernard.

Mrs. Galbraith had been in ill health for months. Last Tuesday her condition became grave and she gradually grew weaker until relieved by death at the hour stated above.

The deceased was born in Lewis county 48 years ago and was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Manyard Davis.

Twenty-five years ago she was united in marriage with Mr. L. W. Galbraith, who preceded her to the grave a year ago last September.

She was an exemplary Christian woman, being a member of the M. E. Church, South, and her death will create a void in the hearts of a large circle of friends and acquaintances in this city.

The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock from the residence of Mr. W. H. Yancey.

Interment in Maysville Cemetery.

SERIOUSLY INJURED

Mrs. Will Rice Badly Hurt in a Run-away Yesterday

Mrs. Will Rice of Cottageville, en route to this city yesterday morning, met with quite a serious accident while driving between Rectorville and Plumville.

Her horse frightened and ran away, throwing her from her buggy.

Prompt assistance was at hand, but she was found to be seriously, if not fatally, hurt, her head being badly cut and bruised, while her back was also injured.

She was removed to the home of her father at Rectorville, where she lies in a critical condition.

MR. C. BURGESS TAYLOR

Resigned Yesterday as Master Commissioner of Mason County

At the close of the motion hour of the Mason Circuit Court yesterday Mr. C. Burgess Taylor, who has been Master Commissioner of this county for several years, tendered his resignation to Judge James P. Harbeson, which was accepted by the Court, accompanied by many expressions of regret.

At the same time the members of the Bar and officials with whom Mr. Taylor has had business while connected with the Court gave testimony to his excellent character, his care in the conduct of his duties, his general efficiency, and also signified their regret over his resignation.

Other business matters, which prevented him giving the needed attention to his work, necessitated Mr. Taylor giving up the appointment.

Judge Harbeson at once named Mr. Clarence L. Sallee for Master Commissioner.

It is with profound regret that I note the misfortune of an old and cherished friend in Missouri. W. PERRINE LAREW is a Mason county boy, with honored family connections in all this country round about. In the flush of young manhood he joined the Confederate Army, and was to the end a loyal soldier. After the War he learned the law, and for several years practiced at this Bar. Then he sought a wider field, going to St. Louis about eighteen years ago. Some time since he became Attorney for a lady, collecting for her in "drib," as best he could, a claim that she thought ought to have been paid in a lump. While awaiting later and final payments, so the story goes, Mr. LAREW used a part of what had been collected; and when the client demanded the entire sum it was not forthcoming, although Mr. LAREW's friends here would have promptly supplied it had they been advised of the situation. Then followed a suit for embezzlement, in which the accused conducted his own case. Whether or not it was due to his inefficiency as a Lawyer, or whether it was due in some measure to the wave of Reform which at that time swept everything before it in St. Louis, Mr. LAREW was convicted; and only a few days ago the conviction and sentence of two years were affirmed by the Supreme Court of the state. Physicians have certified to the impaired health of the unfortunate man, and scores of old-time friends in this section—professional and business men—have joined in a petition to Governor FOLK for a full pardon, which it is hoped the Executive will grant.

To those who do not personally know PERRINE LAREW, I reproduce a bit correspondence that passed more than twenty years ago, which will serve to show his true character—

MAYSVILLE, KY., August 5th, 1885.

W. P. LAREW, First Vice-President Confederate Survivors' Association—Dear Sir: Will you kindly consent to act as Aide on the occasion of the obsequies to General U. S. GRANT in this city on Saturday afternoon next? If so, please advise me at your earliest opportunity, and you will be announced accordingly. Very sincerely yours,

THOMAS A. DAVIS, Grand Marshal.

MAYSVILLE, KY., August 5th, 1885.

Thomas A. Davis, Grand Marshal, &c.—Dear Sir: Criticism is silent in the presence of death, and the country mourns at the grave of the illustrious GRANT and unites in doing honor to his memory. It is well this should be so, since it furnishes the highest possible evidence that the storm of bitterness and hate engendered by the War has passed away and that the fires of passion have ceased to burn. To see the remains of the dead chieftain borne to their last resting-place by the chivalrous BUCKNER and the strategic JOHNSTON, while a nephew of the great LEE acts as Aide to the gallant HANCOCK on the occasion of General Grant's burial in New York, were alone sufficient to prevent my declining the honor you do me in your note of this date, if no other reason could be found; but when I remember the kindly interest shown by Joseph Heiser Post of the G. A. R. in our town at the decoration of Confederate graves by the Confederate Survivors' Association, of which I have the honor to be the second officer, I am made doubly anxious that the pageant of next Saturday at this, the schoolboy home of General GRANT, shall be a success, and any assistance I may be able to give to that end is at your command. I therefore accept the appointment of Aide to yourself "on the occasion of the obsequies to General GRANT in this city on Saturday afternoon next." Yours, etc.,

W. P. LAREW.

A dishonest man never wrote a letter like that!

GOVERNOR-ELECT PATTISON of Ohio has established a Pie-Eaters Clearing House in Cincinnati, with his brother, Attorney W. F. PATTISON, in charge. T'other day the latter Mr. PATTISON was mingling with the crowd of office-seekers, and when he reached for his watch to see how much longer he would have to answer questions it was gone. Evidently your Ohio office-hunter will take anything he can get.

Spices THAT SPICE

Although adulterated Spices should never be used for any purpose, there is no time when pure Spices are needed more than during the hog-killing season.

You can be sure of Pure Spices of the best quality if you purchase them here, for in spice purchasing we trust nobody, but test everything in the spice line the same as we do our drugs. If you could see what a lot we have to reject you would appreciate being able to so easily procure the pure kind.

At the present time we can furnish you with some of the freshest and best Sage, Black Pepper, Cayenne Pepper, etc., that was ever raised, and they'll cost you no more than old, flavorless, adulterated kinds which are frequently sold.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

DISFIGURED WITH ECZEMA

Brushed Scales from Face Like Powder—Under Physicians Six Months But Grew Worse—Some Said Face Would Be Marked for Life—Now Without a Blemish.

CUTICURA REMEDIES WORK WONDERS.

"As I was a sufferer with eczema I write to tell you what a great friend I found in Cuticura Remedies. In six months I had tried three doctors, but did not get any better. It was on my body and on my feet so thick that I could hardly put a pin in me without touching eczema. My face was covered, my eyebrows came out, and then it got in my eye. I then went to another doctor. He asked me what I was taking for it, and I told him Cuticura. He said that was a very good thing, but that he thought that my face would be marked for life. But Cuticura did its work and my face is now just as clear as it ever was.

"My brother-in-law told me about the wonderful Cuticura remedies. I took his advice and got the Ointment, Soap, and Resolvent. I washed with the Cuticura Soap and then applied the Ointment, and took Cuticura Resolvent as directed. In a short time my face began to get better, and when I had taken one bottle of Resolvent I could brush the scales off my face like a powder. When I had taken four bottles my face was as clear as ever.

"I told all my friends about my remarkable cure. I feel so thankful I want everybody far and wide to know what Cuticura can do. It is a sure cure for eczema, (signed) Mrs. Emma White, 641 Cherry Place, Camden, N. J., April 25, 1905."

Good, Suitable Clothing!

Is one of the most essential provisions for mankind. Thus it is important the children and boys are provided with suitable garments by the parent. The young men have fancies of their own; the elderly gentlemen have styles of a personal character.

The One Question Which Concerns All Alike

Is where to find their fancies. The knowing ones with one accord will say it is where you find guaranteed merchandise; where prices are in plain figures; where your money will be refunded if you so desire; and that place is
